

SEEDS OF FORTUNE INC. POSITION: Internship Telementor

As a Seed Tele-Mentor you will assist young women of color in transforming her passion and dreams into a powerful story for her college and scholarship application. Seeds of Fortune, Inc. team is a dynamic community of college and young professionals on a mission to provide creative and academic guidance, support, and opportunities for the next generation. Seed Tele-Mentor will be provided the opportunity to instruct members in the area of the college application process, build relationships with local political officials, college admission offices, event planning and develop business acumen.

Responsibilities:

- Plan workshops for Seed Online College Prep Network including ordering supplies, checking in with participants, assisting in planning annual college tour
- Instruct a class during Seed Online College Prep Network
- Learn political advocacy and research skills
- Administrative Task

Benefits:

- To become an essential part of a young girl finding her voice
- Frequent communication with compassionate and knowledgeable staff and experienced volunteers
- An opportunity to grow with a dynamic community

Requirement:

- Must be enrolled in a college/university

Majors of Interest:

- Business, Finance
- Marketing/PR
- Political Science
- Education

Location: Virtual

Commitment: 3-10 hours a week, 6-10 weeks, Full-time Summer Internship Extension offer upon review of performance

Compensation: $15